ANOTHER COLD WAVE

One Last Night Went Away and a New Came This Morning.

Fall From Thirty to Much Less During the Morning, with Keen Wind.

SUFFERING HAS BEEN GREAT.

Paducah has had some queer weather within the past 24 hours. Last night the temperature began rising, and the highest reached was 30 degrees. At midnight it was 16 above, with indications of more pleasant weather today, but suddenly about daylight another cold wave struck the city and this section, and the temperature fell from about 25 degrees at 6 o'clock a. m. to 10 above at 10:30 accompanied by a strong wind.

The wind was like a knife, making it very unpleasant to go out. The river was a miniature reproduction of the ocean, with waves so high that few boats could make headway in it, even if they had not had a wind blowing 30 miles an hour to contend with.

It is supposed that this section is getting the tail end of some other cold wave today, and as the indications are for continued cold tonight and tomorrow, there is little relief promised.

Conditions in the city, however, have considerably improved since Monday. The street cars are running all over the city, the Rowlandtown line being the last to be cleared and this alone is a great convenience to the public, many having had previously to walk long distances for two days through the snow, and bitter cold weather. Many of the sidewalks have also been cleared of snow, adding to the comfort.

Suffering has been great, however, especially among the poorer people, but many seem willing and anxious to work. A number of men, both white and colored, were on the streets today seeking any sort of work, from cleaning sidewalks and carrying in coal to harder work.

Signing is still a favorite pastime, although the wind today has made it rather less popular than yesterday. The prospects are that we shall have at least several days of it.

Many applicants for aid have been received both at the city hall and county court house, and the unfortunate have been relieved as far as possible by the authorities.

This afternoon it appears to be slightly warmer, and the wind had almost died down.

TO ASSIST POOR

Chief Collins Will Send Out Patrol Wagon.

All Who Have Food or Clothing Asked to Telephone Police.

Chief of Police James Collins announces that he will send the patrol wagon to any residence in the city where clothing or provisions are reported for the poor of the city.

There are a number of destitute families in the city and the police are continually finding more. Chief Collins has been sending out the patrol wagon for three days gathering clothing, provisions and fuel and will distribute same among the families who are in need. He wishes to have any one caring to help these people notify him and he will send the wagon for the donations.

COMPACT CARRIED OUT

THE MAN AND WOMAN AGREED TO DIE AND DID IT.

New Orleans, Feb. 18—Ella Atkins, who has a sister at Haverhill, Ky., and Folger Green, made a compact to die together, and carried it out. Green stabbed himself to death and the woman took morphine.

QUEEN CITY'S VOYAGE

Big Cincinnati Boat Had a Rough Time of it Today.

Came Near Turning Over Just Above the Paducah Harbor—Wind and Waves Bad.

THE VISITORS SEE PADUCAH

The Queen City en route from Cincinnati to New Orleans with one hundred and twenty passengers from Pittsburg to Cincinnati, reached the city this morning about 5 o'clock after one of the most memorable trips in the history of the Ohio river.

The handsome big steamer came near turning over in midstream after daylight while trying to make a landing and many of the mill men in Mechanicsburg who were watching her ineffectual efforts to land, expected every moment to see her capsized.

She is in charge of Captain Frank Ellison, president of the chamber of commerce of Cincinnati, and a former Paducah boy. The other officers are: John H. Sweeney, first officer, Louis Thun, mate, Arthur B. Brown, purser, and Cruz Vance clerk. Aboard are members of the Ohio Valley Improvement association, who expect to arouse interest in the "on to Cairo" move.

Arrangements had been made to meet them at the wharf last night and for four hours, the length of their stay, extend to them the hospitality of Paducah, but the boat did not reach the city until this morning, although she has not made a single stop between Cincinnati and Paducah.

Captain Ellison, who is an old river man, said today that he never in all his life went up against such weather and water as on this trip, especially such as he encountered just above Paducah this morning. The wind was blowing almost a hurricane and the waves were so high that the boat was practically unmanageable, rendering her dangerously susceptible to the gale when it struck her sideways.

Near the Palmer-Ferguson mill, above the city, however, the boat was finally brought to shore and securely moored. Assistance would have been sent from the city, but no tug or other boat could weather the gale and consequently the Queen City had to do the best she could alone.

Mayor D. A. Yeiser and President Charles Reed of the council, went up to the boat as soon as they learned that she had arrived, and found the passengers enjoying themselves as much as possible. In fact, Captain Ellison said his passengers behaved most commendably and at no time appeared to be as anxious about their safety as the captain himself who was almost unnerved at one time, probably because he better understood their danger.

While the boat was pitching and tossing about in the worst of the wind and threatening to sink every moment, two ladies came up and importuned the captain to "go ahead." Below he found a lively dance in progress.

The freedom of the city was extended the visitors by Mayor Yeiser and Mr. Reed, and many of them came back with the officials. Quite a party went through the Kentucky theater and all pronounced it one of the prettiest and finest they ever saw.

Quite a crowd of them went to the hotels for dinner, and despite the weather enjoyed looking over the city. The Ohio Valley men were met by local officials, members of the Commercial club and others, and about 1 o'clock the Queen City was able to drop down to the wharf and prepare to resume her trip towards New Orleans.

The party is composed mostly of eastern ladies and gentlemen who have plenty of money and leisure, and there are more ladies than men in the crowd. The boat did not make a landing at any of the ports after leaving Cincinnati, but last night had to tie up near Golconda on account of wind. She was due to stop at Louisville and Evansville, but could not land.

She will leave this afternoon, with prospects for a more tranquil trip, and in all probability will stop again at Paducah on her way back.

WORST IN HISTORY

Illinois Central's Business So Large That There is Blockade.

Cars Strewed From Chicago to New Orleans Despite Efforts to Relieve.

COMPANY'S GREAT EFFORTS

The Illinois Central is making herculean efforts to relieve the congestion of freight on its various lines, but thus far the situation has been little improved.

At Paducah the situation is not so bad as in other places, but the effect of the blockade is being keenly felt in other cities. Yesterday at Fulton there was a coal famine, all the dealers having sold out, and the supply being exhausted. Coal had been on the way two weeks, but no report received as to its whereabouts, and the only coal in Fulton was that belonging to the railroad company.

Superintendent Lorton, of the Illinois Central, was communicated with and with usual promptness of Illinois Central officials replied that his company would relieve the situation as much as possible, and two car loads of the company's coal were turned over to the dealers for distribution among customers.

The water and cold weather have not contributed to the relief of the congestion of freight on the road and its branches, however, and the Memphis Commercial Appeal says:

"The road in the worst condition at this time, as has been previously published, is the Illinois Central. In spite of herculean efforts of the traffic department to relieve this congestion little real good has yet been accomplished. Matters have reached such a point that it will be necessary to bring engines, from the lack of which the road is the greatest sufferer, from other divisions. Cars are scattered on sidings all the way from Chicago to New Orleans over the main line, and from Memphis to New Orleans over the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley road. It has been realized that little real relief can be given until these cars have been sent to their destination, and with this end in view engines are now being delivered to the lines below this city. Enough cars to relieve the blockade are also on the way, and with sufficient motive power to answer the requirements of the situation, it is thought that the combination will give the first actual relief that has yet been afforded."

The pilots are Harry Doss and Walter Connors. The experience of the boat led to many sensational romances of steamboat disasters, but there was no injury to either boat or passengers. The boat left on her trip down this afternoon about 2:30 o'clock, everybody delighted with as much of Paducah as they saw—except the weather. If possible as they come up they promised to stop again.

COURT SENSATION

ATTORNEY FINED $30 FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Mayville, Ky., Feb. 18—In the circuit court here yesterday Judge James P. Harbeson had the sheriff bring Attorney Allan D. Cole before him, and after publicly censuring him for filing affidavits reflecting on the court, fined him $30 for contempt and delivered him to the sheriff with orders to commit him to jail if not paid.

Mr. Cole is grand master of the grand lodge of Kentucky, I. O. O. F. For some time the relations between the court and Mr. Cole have been unpleasant and the animosity this morning was not unexpected, though much regretted.

KENTUCKIAN KIDNAPED.

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 18—George Orris, captured by local police in Kentucky Saturday after a hot chase, was sentenced to the penitentiary today for petit larceny. He claims to have been kidnapped by the officers and will fight the case.

TORTURING DISFIGURING Skin, Scalp and Blood Humours

Speedily Cured by Cuticura
Soap, Ointment and Pills

When the Best Physicians and
All Else Fail.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful swelling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurements, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worried parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum;—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures, blood purifiers and humour remedies of the civilized world.

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take the Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood. This complete treatment, costing but one dollar, affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning and scaly humours of the skin, scalp and blood, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

HEROIC DEED

Farmer Almost Freezes While Warning a Train.

Saved 100 Passengers By Standing an Hour in His Shirt Sleeves.

Cairo, Ill., Feb. 18.—S. S. Glascock, a farmer, faced a blizzard in his shirt sleeves for more than an hour to save 100 passengers on the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railroad. Glascock was frozen so that he had to be carried into the cars after he flagged the train near Harrisburg. Glascock, while walking along the track discovered a broken rail. He used his red-lined canvas coat as a flag, and to be sure that his signal would be seen by the engineer he held the coat aloft on a stick, leaving himself unprotected in the blinding storm.

NOTED CASE ENDS

DEFENDANT IN A MEMPHIS POLISONING CASE DIES.

Memphis, Feb. 18.—A dispatch to the Holmitar from New Orleans announces the death in that city of Mrs. Georgia Emma Hooks, of this city, after an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Hooks was one of the wealthiest women in Memphis and her death recalls probably the most famous murder trial in local history.

In October, 1901, Cerro Gordo Hooks died under what was claimed to be suspicious circumstances. A month after the interment the body was exhumed and an autopsy was conducted by a well known chemist, who reported that he found arsenic and ground glass in the stomach in quantities sufficient to kill the deceased.

In November, 1901, an indictment was found against Mrs. Hooks, charging her with the murder of her husband. The case was brought to trial last spring. The best legal talent in the community was employed on both sides and the case was stubbornly contested, the trial lasting several weeks. The jury after being out two days reported that it was impossible to agree on a verdict.

PECULIAR DEATH

YOUNG MAN HAD A SERIES OF PROPHECIC DREAMS.

Bristol, Tenn., Feb. 18.—John Bannell, a young son of Editor J. W. Bannell of the Lebanon, Va., News, met a tragic fate a few days ago, having been dealt an accidental blow in the head by a neighbor, which resulted in his death. Since the death of the young man it is revealed that there was a remarkable series of coincidental dreams foreshadowing the fatal accident. All the dreams are said to have occurred on the night preceding the accident. O. C. Bannell, a brother of the unfortunate man, and editor of the Gate City Leader, says he dreamed of having received a message to come to the bedside of some one who was seriously ill. Another man at Gate City dreamed that Mr. Bannell was called away from Gate City in great haste, and related his dream to Mr. Bannell a short time before the latter received the telegram calling him to the bed.

MARRIED YESTERDAY.

COL. JOUETT HENRY WEDS MRS CLARDY IN WASHINGTON.

Colonel Jouett Henry, mayor of Hopkinsville, and Mrs. Lizzie E. Clardy, also of that city, were married in Washington yesterday. Colonel Henry is grandchancellor of the Kentucky Knights of Pythias, district deputy of the grand lodge of Elks and a veteran of the Spanish war. His bride is a wealthy young widow, whose first husband was son of former Congressman John D. Clardy. She has large land interests in Texas, and is widely connected in Kentucky, Texas and Washington, D. C.

Since the death of her former husband three years ago, she has spent much time in Washington. They will return to Hopkinsville this week.

Colonel Henry is well and favorably known in Paducah, having frequently been here, and being the officer who mustered in Co. K, Spanish war volunteers.

Predicts More Volcanic Activity. The French scientist, M. De Saint-alphonse, who predicted the catastrophe about Monticagne, has announced that there will be periods of volcanic activity early in November and early in February.

VETERANS MET

Nothing Definite Done at Last Night's Meeting However.

Another Meeting Will Be Called for the Near Future in Paducah.

Nothing definite was done at last night's meeting of Confederate Veterans, held at the city hall. There was a good attendance considering the weather and it was decided to shortly call another meeting to which will be invited all Confederate soldiers in the city and county. It will be decided then whether or not to organize a camp, whether or not to affiliate with the United Confederate Veterans or be independent.

The date of this meeting has not been decided on.

A communication has been received and was read last night from the Second brigade of the United association, which desires to hold its fall reunion here but nothing definite was done. This brigade includes veterans between Tennessee and Mississippi rivers and those between Green and Tennessee rivers, in this state.

CAUGHT IN MISSOURI

YOUNG MAN WANTED IN FULTON BROUGHT BACK TO KENTUCKY.

Luther Farmer, wanted at Fulton for forgery, was caught at Bloomfield, Mo., and brought back to Kentucky by Sheriff Carpenter, of Hickman. Farmer, it is said, forged his father's name to two checks; one for $25 and one for $30, and had both cashed in Fulton.

When the sheriff arrived in Bloomfield he found Farmer in jail, having been arrested upon a charge of robbery. The Missouri officers readily turned him over to the Fulton sheriff upon presentation of his papers, and he at once started home with his prisoner.

OUT OF PRISON

Austin, Tex., Feb. 18.—Charles Beeler, who robbed Wells, Fargo & Co. of express packages containing $52,000 at San Antonio a little more than two years ago, has been released from the penitentiary, his sentence for the crime having expired. None of the stolen money was recovered, and it is claimed that Beeler hid it in order that he might obtain possession of it when he had gained his liberty. He was a wagon driver for the express company when he committed the robbery. He is being shadowed by Wells-Fargo detectives, who met him at the prison doors when he was released.

CUTTING AT JOPPA

TWO TIE CARRIERS HAVE A BLOODY FRAY.

An encounter that may prove fatal occurred at Joppa, Ill., a day or two ago. A negro named Tinsley got into a difficulty with George Bridgeman. It is said Bridgeman hit Tinsley with a fire shovel after which Tinsley jerked out a knife and slashed Bridgeman across the left cheek laying it open to the bone from the corner of the mouth to back of the ear. He also struck the knife into his left side, penetrating the interior lining. Tinsley was arrested.

POPULAR MAN

AND A FAITHFUL POLICE OFFICER GOES WEST.

Officer Tom Orr, who lately resigned his position on the local police force, left this morning for Riverside, Cal., to reside. He visited at California this fall and liked the country so well that he decided to move there and live. His wife made the trip with him and did not return when he did. Mr. Orr's many friends here will regret to see him go, but will wish him success in his new home.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

It is Greatly Reduced by the Weather Now.

Rooms Are Today Comfortably Heated and Teachers Are Back.

The school attendance in the primary grades especially has fallen off greatly and there are few in attendance this morning in this department.

The small school children are usually kept at home such weather as this and the attendance consequently suffers greatly. Superintendent Hatfield stated this morning that all teachers are back at their places today, and that all rooms are comfortably heated. Yesterday four rooms in the Longfellow building, on Fifth and Court streets, were cold and the pupils had to be dismissed and the heat from these rooms forced into other rooms. This morning all rooms are comfortable and little trouble is experienced from this source.

NEW EQUIPMENT

ORDERS PLACED FOR MANY NEW LOCOMOTIVES AND CARS.

Mr. J. T. Harahan, second vice president of the Illinois Central railroad, is reported as saying that the company has just ordered fifty new locomotives, and that in view of the congestion of freight traffic in the South the new equipment will probably find its way there as soon as delivered. The order includes thirty freight engines, ten passenger engines and ten switchers. It is further stated that the Illinois Central recently ordered 100 locomotives for delivery this year, but that only eight have been delivered, and the order will not be completed until the first of next year.

The St. Louis and San Francisco railroad is also reported to be in the market for 50 locomotives, 1000 box cars and 1000 flat cars, to be delivered in 1904.

CHEAP HOMES IN TEXAS AND ARKANSAS

Along the Cotton Belt route—land that can be bought for $3 to $5 an acre and up—out-over timber ground that makes good grazing land, full of shing range ten or eleven months of the year, farming land for corn, wheat, oats, cotton—some of it peculiarly adapted to quick growth and early maturity of fruits and vegetables, such as peaches, pears, plums, strawberries, tomatoes, potatoes, onions, cabbage, melons—finding good markets in the north at fancy prices, on account of excellence of quality and earlier maturity than in other sections. An ideal place for the man of small means—cheap fuel, cheap building material, long growing seasons, short, mild winters—a land of sunshine and plenty. MISS ELEANOR GRAY,

President of the Woman's Art
Association of

ST. AUGUSTINE,
FLORIDA.

43 King Street,
St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 5, 1902.

I have not enjoyed good health for the past five years, and were it not for Wine of Cardui I would still be a sufferer today. I was troubled with profuse menstruation, was very irregular and often menstruated every three weeks instead of at the proper periods. Each time I would have severe cramps and bearing down pains with backache unfitting me for office work, and compelling me to lie down for several hours each day and sometimes the entire day. I used several remedies and spent hundreds of dollars trying to get relief, but all of no avail. Fortunately, one of your Ladies' Birthday Almanacs came into my hands and I became much interested, naturally hoping that it would cure me as it had cured others. I took my first dose that night and kept up the treatment religiously. My vitality, which had been well nigh spent by the heavy loss of blood, was gradually restored. I noticed a marked absence of pain at the next period, also a more natural flow. I kept up the treatment for four months and found to my joy that I was entirely well, and the functions of nature were performed naturally and easily. Wine of Cardui is certainly a grand medicine and gladly do I give it entire credit for my wonderful restoration to health.

Eleanor Gray

MISS GRAY took Wine of Cardui and stuck to it. That is what she means when she says she "kept up the treatment religiously". She is rid of her terrible suffering because she took this mild and simple remedy, because she did not put off the treatment. She did not take it a day or a week and then stop. She took Wine of Cardui and gave its curative qualities time to build up her weak parts, regulate her functions and cure the terrible pains in her back. And Wine of Cardui so used will never fail to benefit any case of female trouble however serious it may be. Wine of Cardui cannot restore dead organs, but it does cure menstrual troubles, which sap the body of its strength and result in back-breaking, bearing-down pains. Wine of Cardui is a simple vegetable remedy that has cured hundreds of thousands of women suffering from leucorrhoea, bearing-down pains and all the common menstrual disorders when they have taken it according to the directions on the bottle. If you will secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist and take a few doses of it every day you will have the same relief Miss Gray enjoys. Never let anyone sell you a substitute for Wine of Cardui.

OOM PAULA SCRAPPER

He Gives the Professor a Stiff Jab in the Jaw.

Sensational Incident Now Being Reported in European Press.

New York, Feb. 18—Recently arrived copies of Scandinavian newspapers contain detailed accounts of a sensational meeting between President Kruger and the eloping Princess of Saxony and her lover, which is alleged to have taken place at Mentone the latter part of January. A Danish reporter was sitting outside a cafe at Mentone when he caught sight of the crown princess leaning on the arm of Oron. Suddenly they were confronted by the former Boer president. Raising his right hand toward the sky the old Boer cried, in a deep, tremulous voice: "Do ye not know that the friendship of this world is the hostility of the Lord?"

With a sob and a groan the crown princess sprang from her chair and tore a splendid bracelet set with diamonds from her wrist. It fell to the ground and rolled to the feet of Oom Paul.

A moment later Oron was shaking his fist in the old chief's face. A powerful blow with the flat of hand on the side of the head sent Oron reeling to one side and nearly knocked him down. Then the old man turned his back on the pair and walked slowly toward his villa.

IN SCOTLAND

NEW SCHEME FOR DISPOSING OF CARNEGIE MONEY.

London, Feb. 18—The Carnegie trust will issue a scheme which it has drawn up for the endowment of post-graduate study in Scottish universities. Besides grants in aid of special researches, it includes scholarships and fellowships in the groups of subjects—one science and medicine; the other, history, economics and modern languages and literature. The value of a scholarship is 100 pounds a year, a fellowship 150 pounds and the holder of either is debarrd from undertaking any other remunerative work except by permission.

Mrs. J. I. Langston leaves tomorrow for Mayfield, where she will join her sister, Mrs. K. P. Hall, and go to Mardi Gras at New Orleans.

SCALES FROZEN

Yard Men of the Illinois Central Handicapped.

Frozen Water Prevents Much Business Being Done.

The Illinois Central car scales in the new yards have been frozen ever since early Monday morning and can not be used.

Monday morning, when the freeze set in, the rainwater filled the base of the scales and when frozen made it impossible to do any work with the machine. The night and day weighing clerks have been doing nothing for two days and business in the yards is running slack.

All the switches in the shop yards have been thawed out and are now in good working order, but few switch engines are running. The shop forces are the only employees who are not materially affected by the freeze as there are stoves in the shops and the building is kept well heated.

CLAIMS PERPETUAL MOTION

TEXAN INVENTS MACHINE WHICH HE DECLARES FURNISHES THE LONG-BOUGHT SOLUTION.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 18—Charles N. DeWitt, connected with the millwright department of Swift & Co.'s packing house, has built a perpetual motion machine that actually runs. Yesterday while the miniature machine was running DeWitt was offered $10,000 for a half interest in it by a gentleman who was present to witness the test. DeWitt says he has been able to overcome the "dead level" which has floundered all his predecessors in this field of research and experiment; has also solved the further problem, which scientists have claimed never would be solved, of drawing force from the machine. DeWitt has been able to get 100 revolutions per minute out of his test machine, which is constructed of wood. He said today: "Now that I have demonstrated thoroughly that my theory is correct, I am going to put up a good machine, which I calculate will run 200 revolutions per minute and develop fifty horse-power. I have been working on my invention three years."

DeWitt expects to have one of his machines in operation in time to exhibit it at the St. Louis World's Fair.

MAD STONE STUCK.

CURED CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. R. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months; the doctors stated he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and it cured him. That was six years ago, and since then we always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds, it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1 bottle.

LOW RATES TO CALIFORNIA.

Commencing February 15, and daily until April 30, 1903, the Illinois Central railroad company will sell one-way second class colonist's tickets from Paducah to San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego and other points in California taking same rate, and also to Prescott and Phoenix, Arizona, and intermediate points, for $31.40. Tourist sleeping cars on which these tickets will be honored pass through Paducah on train No. 103 at 8:42 a. m. every Wednesday and Saturday, running through to Los Angeles and San Francisco. Stop-overs allowed in California. For further information apply to J. T. DONOVAN, Agent.

FARMERS' WAR ON WHISKERS.

Confidence men who identify rural visitors to the city by unshorn beards will have to discover a new distinguishing characteristic if the farmers of the country follow the lead of those composing the local grange. At a meeting today the farmers of this region decided whiskers were a discredit, and pledged themselves to shave regularly. Many crops of the Oom Paul variety are doomed to sacrifice.

CANCER CURED.

Mr. W. W. Prickett, Smithfield, Ill., writes, September 10, 1901: "I had been suffering several years with a cancer on my face, which gave me great annoyance and unbearable itching. I was using Ballard's Snow Liniment for a sore leg, and through an accident, I rubbed some of the liniment on the cancer, and as it gave me almost instant relief, I decided to continue to use the liniment on the cancer. In a short time the cancer came out, my face healed up and there is not the slightest scar left. I have implicit faith in the merits of this preparation, and it cannot be too highly recommended." 25c, 50c and $1.

Saved

From Death After Four Years

Of Nervous Prostration and Debility.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Me Permanently.

Nervous prostration is the most serious of nervous disorders. It arises from some extra strain, which robs the nerves of strength, vitality and life. The patient speedily loses self control, is subject to frightful headaches, faint spells, melancholia and morbid tendencies. Too weak to drag the thin, wasted body around; unable to get sleep or rest, life seems scarcely worth the living; the mind frequently broods until it becomes unbalanced and insanity often results. Read what Dr. Miles' Nervine did for Mrs. Grubbs:

"I was terribly afflicted with nervous trouble for nearly four years. I was so bad at times that I could not help myself, nor carry a chair across the room without giving out. One physician attended me for a year and a half without giving me any help whatever and I also doctored with two others without any good results. My father and others wished me to try Dr. Miles' Nervine which, after lots of coaxing I did. I took six bottles of the Nervine and some of the Nervine and Liver Pills. I was completely cured of my trouble and I heartily recommend it to any woman who is suffering from a nervous disorder. I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for headache and neuralgia with best results. I believe firmly in the efficacy of the Nervine and Liver Pills and am fully convinced that Dr. Miles' Remedies saved my life."—MRS. HATTIE GRUBBS, Roanoke, Va.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Every kindness done to others in our daily walk, every attempt to make others happy, every prejudice overcome, every truth more clearly perceived, every difficulty subdued, every sin left behind, every temptation trampled under foot, every step forward in the cause of what is good, is a step nearer God.

THE WEATHER.

A CITIZEN'S DUTY.

The recent controversy we had in Paducah and McCracken county over efforts to stamp out smallpox, and the obvious desire in some quarters to avoid the obligation that every citizen owes the health and welfare of every other citizen, leads us to make extracts from an editorial in the Lexington Herald, which says:

"Someone has remarked upon the phenomenon of the almost universal daily cheerfulness of the human race, when every member of it has before him the awful prospect of death. Our disregard of any evil not a present one is certainly a boon when the evil is an unavoidable one. That we can go about our daily business and, in spite of our knowledge of the evil, continually forget it, is something to be thankful for; it indicates a state of mind to be cultivated; it may even be dignified as a philosophic calm. That we can become equally oblivious to so many possible evils that are strictly avoidable as to neglect the means to this immunity, is merely an indication of a certain intellectual weakness or inertia in us. Our guilt in this wise is constantly proven by the recurring epidemics of wholly preventable diseases such as smallpox and typhoid fever. The former epidemic is, since the discovery of Jenner, so easily preventable that every recurrence of it is a reproach to the community in which it occurs, a proof that our civilization has not yet sunk into an overly deep sleep. Our attention has been especially called to this recently by the publication of the annual report of the president of the board of health of Lexington, in which he briefly rehearses the facts of the two outbreaks of last year, one in the spring and one in the fall, and by the public warning issued a few weeks ago by the state board of health of the danger of a widespread epidemic of smallpox in Kentucky. . . . It was not until 1798 that an English country doctor made the discovery that renders, wherever the race is not too indifferent to avail itself of it, the world immune to this frightful scourge that formerly swept over the land like fire over the prairies. . . . leaving its path strewn with the dead. . . . Of this, it seems to us, there can be no doubt in the mind of the man who approaches the subject without prejudice. It is upheld by such facts as these: In the city of Berlin in the twenty years preceding the introduction of vaccination the death rate was 3,423 in every million of people; in the forty years following its introduction the average number of yearly deaths was 176; by absolutely rigid enforcement of vaccination Germany has now reduced its death-rate from smallpox to less than one in two millions of people. In England and America, where the enforcement of the precaution of vaccination is not so general, the death rate is greater. In both countries, however, the many years of vaccination has rendered the whole people so far immune to the disease that it prevails only in a light form, and this fact, in removing much of the horror of it formerly felt, has made the public more careless of reasonable precaution. . . . It behooves us to heed the reiterated counsels of our board of health. There are some persons who oppose vaccination upon principle, believing that the present immunity of the race from smallpox comes from improved and more cleanly habits of living rather than from the production of an antitoxin by the Jenner method. But the number of these persons is so small that the community is really in little danger from them; its danger lies rather in the indifference and carelessness of the convinced rather than in the obstinacy of the doubting Thomases. It is much easier to intellectually acknowledge a principle than it is to put into practice the rather troublesome deductions that should be made from it. How many of us have obeyed the recently much repeated injunction of our state board of health 'to have ourselves and everyone dependent upon us vaccinated?' How many more of us have failed to obey it, in the face of the fact that the disease is epidemic in many parts of the state, forgetting that by so doing we are not only foolishly endangering ourselves, but also selfishly making ourselves at the same time a source of danger to all the rest of the community?"

WHOOPING 'EM UP.

One is struck by the contrast in the opening speeches of the two Democratic candidates for the gubernatorial nomination in Kentucky. One was calm, indifferent and confident, while the other was defiant, desperate and almost hopeless. Governor Beckham's address seems to indicate inevitable triumph, while that of Mr. Hendrick betokens fear of results and resentment of prevailing conditions.

Beckham wastes little time on the other fellows. He seems to think he will have a walk over with them, and that the best way to proceed is to let them do all the fighting. Mr. Hendrick denounces what he calls "the machine," and says some pretty bad things about what it expects to do to the rank and file of his party, and then on the heels of that, announces that if the machine wins, he will support it. In other words, Mr. Hendrick declares that the machine is "attempting to manipulate the decree that the proud old Democratic party of Kentucky shall go before the people without any platform or expression defining the party's attitude upon these questions."

"The base proposition is an outrage and an insult to the intelligence of the Democratic voters of Kentucky. . . . "It is an outrage, pure and simple. No man ought to be willing to win in his party by swindling." Yet if the machine does what Mr. Hendrick claims, defies the will of the people, swindles the party, and imposes other outrages on it, Mr. Hendrick will nevertheless support it and recommend it to the people of his party and of the state of Kentucky as fit to have charge of the state government and will seek to have Kentucky dominated by this crowd of "swindlers," who defy the people and commit outrages against the public!

The administration crowd seems to be bent on ignoring Mr. Hendrick and the anti-machine men as far as possible. It doubtless wants to keep Mr. Hendrick in the race. If it should force him out, it would leave the impression with the voters that the administration "froze out" opposition for the principal office in the state and might militate against the success of the rest of the ticket. Therefore they regard Mr. Hendrick's candidacy as an auxiliary to the machine in perpetrating its "outrages" and they would rather have him run than some other Kentucky Democrats who might enter the race and make it warm for the machine.

Some of the more powerful men who have it in for the machine, it is reported, have no particular love for Mr. Hendrick, but are abetting him in his race simply to show their disapproval of the other fellows, whom they expect to harass, but hardly hope to beat.

Thus a lot of fellows are saying to Mr. Hendrick, "Sick 'em Tige," on one side, because they want to make the people think there has really been a "scrap" and others are saying the same thing because they think possibly Mr. Hendrick can make it unpleasant for the machine, and thus assist them in venting their spite.

Still another influence is urging Mr. Hendrick on and encouraging him because it can see from the way he is going at it that he is only going to intensify the embittered feeling between Democratic factions and make it impossible for the disrupted party to win in November.

They all seem to have gotten such a good start they can't turn back, and we feel that we can safely say to the Democrats now, that if they aren't satisfied with what they do to each other, they will get enough from us Republicans in November to hold them for a while.

REMARKABLE MAGNANIMITY.

A dispatch from Frankfort says: "A feature of the present administration of state affairs is the rather remarkable restoration of good feeling between the officials and the judicial and other officers of the eastern section of the state. When Governor Beckham came into office and for long afterward communication in an official way was cut off because of the bitter political feeling. Disregarding this the governor addressed the court officials in matters coming up here, which concerned them and in numerous cases invited circuit judges from that section to confer with him regarding local troubles and applications for pardons. For a time they were slow in responding, but today it can be said that there is not an official in all that section who can say that he has not been well and courteously treated. This is true of not only one, but of all the departments at the capital."

Of course it is very remarkable and very kind on part of the Democrats to "well and courteously" treat the Republicans of the eastern part of the state, but we see no reason why they should not do so. There is some doubt—considerable doubt—however, as to the way the people of that section of the state feel towards the Democrats, more particularly the administration, which has done all in its power, aided by a $100,000 corruption fund, by perjury and fraud, to "damn the Republican party of Kentucky," and has further sought to induce the people of the state and the outside world to believe that this very section of the state was directly responsible for the assassination of Senator Goebel. It is probably true that the officials from the eastern part of Kentucky have been "courteously treated" at Frankfort, but we fear it will require a great deal more than that to obliterate the great wrongs that the Democrats have done the Republicans of Kentucky in general, and of the eastern part of the state in particular. We fear the Frankfort dispatch is only a political lie in anticipation of the administration's forthcoming campaign for votes.

The press all over the country is urging the people to remember the poor this kind of weather. There is much suffering, although the charitable associations do all in their power to relieve it. Many people seem anxious to work, as will be attested by those who have coal left on the pavements in front of their stores. Demands of applicants want to carry it in, which is a very good sign. It is hoped that everybody in Paducah will contribute his or her mite towards relief.

It will be good news to the people of Paducah to learn that there is little prospect of a raise in the price of coal in Paducah, despite the weather. Paducah has fortunately been well supplied with coal this season, and at a very reasonably price, considering the prices that have prevailed in many other places.

A Paducah man has invented an electric belt. Paducah will be turning out lightning rods next.—Metropolis Herald. Yes, and probably the best market for them will be Metropolis and vicinity.

The action of the coal men of Kentucky, which guarantees the World's Fair Exhibit association about $11,000, is most commendable, and is an example that should be emulated all over the state by others.

IN POLICE COURT.

ANOTHER VAGRANT ACCEPTS JOB WITH THE CITY.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS

An Important Transfer Made by County Superintendents.

Graves Gets a Strip From McCracken and McCracken From Graves.

GRAVES.

GREAT GOOD IS EXPECTED

An important transfer of county school districts has been made by Superintendent A. M. Ragdale, of the McCracken county public schools, and Superintendent A. B. Cameron, of the Graves county schools, at a meeting held at Melber school house near the county line.

A portion of what is known as the "Shoestring" district, lying between the county line and Myfield creek, was traded to Graves county for a portion of Graves county district in the same vicinity. This was done in order to make perfect districts and to better the school facilities.

"The Shoestring" district formerly had one very badly constructed and managed school house and not much attention was paid to schooling. Superintendents Ragdale and Cameron, with the trustees all met and decided that a transfer was the only way to remedy the defect.

Half of the strip of land was given to Graves, which with the addition of a small district adjoining it in Graves will make a very large district and one where a larger school house can be built. The portion of Graves county land transferred to McCracken will make another district for this county and Prof. Ragdale stated this morning that he thought renewed interest would be taken in educational matters by the residents now that a new school house would be built there. Melber will hereafter be under control of the Graves county superintendent. It is said that this arrangement had been under consideration for about seven years and that no one had heretofore been able to make the settlement until Prof. Ragdale and Cameron took the matter in hand.

THE COAL MEN

They Will Give About $11,000 for Kentucky Exhibit.

Enthusiastic Meeting Held Yesterday at Louisville.

Representatives of Kentucky coal mining companies which produced in 1902 about 2,000,000 tons of coal, attended a meeting of the coal operators committee of the Kentucky Exhibit association held at Louisville yesterday.

Telegrams and letters from the absent members were read, expressing regret at not being able to attend and giving assurances of hearty co-operation in all acts of the committee.

Colonel Atkinson of the St. Bernard Coal company, was elected chairman of the meeting, the unanimous sentiment of which was that every effort be exhausted in raising the $10,000 which the committee started out to do at the mass meeting of coal operators on January 12.

There was a general discussion of the report of the sub-committee as to the draft of a letter to go to the coal operators of the state, soliciting funds and also as to the slitting scale proposed as a basis on which to secure subscription. The report of the committee was finally unanimously adopted, providing for subscriptions ranging from $25 to $500, there being 15 slides to the scale, the first of which is under 5,000 tons, $25, and the last of which is over 500,000 tons, $500. This scale, if all operators subscribe, will bring to the Kentucky Exhibit association fund about $11,000. It was decided that a limit of 60 days be placed on this canvass; that is, that all subscriptions should be made before April 1.

A motion also prevailed that the companies owning undeveloped coal lands, all of which would profit by the movement of the association, should be solicited on the basis of 1 cent an acre for every acre owned by them in Kentucky.

Mr. John Dinger of the local I. O. master mechanic's office has been called to Brookport by the serious illness of his father.

STILL RUNNING LATE

Weather Continues to Interfere With Railroad Traffic.

All Trains This Morning Were Late Into Paducah Because of Cold.

OF COLD.

SEVERAL CARS OFF

The Illinois Central passenger trains continue to run late, and this morning no trains from either the east or south were on time.

Passenger train No. 103, due into Paducah at 3:30, did not arrive until 6:30, being delayed three hours on the road by cars off the track. A second section of this train was run out of Louisville as a Mardi Gras excursion special. This train ran about one hour behind the first section and arrived in Paducah at 7:30. An attempt to get water here was made but the supply pipes were frozen and the train had to leave without water.

Passenger train No. 104 was late this morning and arrived at 4:35. The weather was the cause of the delay to this train but on the east end cars off the track caused the delays. The wrecker was sent out from Paducah to place the cars on but was hindered greatly by the weather and the work could not be performed as quickly as under ordinary circumstances.

Cars were off the track at three places this morning on the Louisville division, one at Eddyville, one at Kuttawa and one at Gravel Switch, but no one was reported injured.

Superintendent A. Philbrick and Trainmaster T. A. Banks, of the Louisville division of the I. C., are in the city today on business.

The steamer Osborne, the I. C. transfer boat, has been unable to run today on account of the winds. She was running yesterday but had to tie up this morning on account of the rough weather. All I. C. passengers will have to go around via Fulton as they did Monday.

The noon passenger train No. 102, due into Paducah at 11:30 o'clock was over three hours and a half late today on account of bad connections south of Fulton.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The case of Edith Stevenson against the I. C. is still on trial at the court house and the evidence has not been half heard. There are a number of railroad operators, contractors and other railroad employees to testify yet.

In the suit of the Hellman Mfg. Co. against Ogilvie & Wiley a verdict was rendered for $1,496. The plaintiffs claim that machinery was purchased from them which the defendants refused, claiming it was not up to contract.

In the case of Bertha Shipley against the Forked Deer Panta Co. the defendant's motion for a new trial was overruled and an appeal granted.

J. C. Boas was excused from the jury this morning and W. W. Jackson substituted.

FORMER KENTUCKIAN DEAD.

F. M. Patterson, a well known citizen of Metropolis, aged 65, died from dropsy. He was born in Caldwell county, Ky., but had lived in Metropolis since 1851. He was a Union veteran and leaves a wife and two daughters.

Theatrical Notes.

"Richard Carvel" to be presented by Andrew Robson and his company at The Kentucky Saturday matinee and night is announced as one of the most complete and perfect in detail productions that will be made here this season. All the scenery for the four acts into which the play is divided is carried by the organization, and in picturing the lawn in front of, and the interior of the Carvel Mansion in Maryland, and the tap-room of the "Star and Garter" inn and the ball room at Charterhouse house, London, the artists have accomplished results that are said to surround the action of the play with settings that are in thorough keeping with the requirements of the period at which the events narrated are supposed to have occurred. Seats on sale Friday for both performances.

Creators, who gave several hand concerts here last season, and was booked for this week, has cancelled out.

FINE PROGRAM

MISSIONARY INSTITUTE AT BROADWAY METHODIST CHURCH MARCH 11.

A missionary institute will be held on the 11th of March at the Broadway Methodist church. It will be an occasion of great interest throughout the Paducah district, and many visitors are expected. Dr. Seth Ward of Nashville, Tenn., one of the missionary secretaries of the M. E. church South, will be present, and will be the speaker of the occasion. The program has been arranged by Presiding Elder Johnston, and the following interesting topics will be discussed:

Question—"What Has Been Accomplished in Mission Work and What Has Our Church Done?"

"The Distributive Responsibilities and United Efforts"—Rev. Seth Ward, D.D.

Question—"What Are Our Local Needs?"

"Motives and Methods of Missionary Work"—Rev. Seth Ward, D.D.

At night Dr. Ward will preach a sermon on "The World's Need."

TO GET REQUISITION.

Concord, N. H., Feb. 18—Sheriff J. W. Dyer, of Hanover county, Minn., arrived here today and immediately filed the requisition papers asking that former Mayor A. A. Ames of Minneapolis, who was arrested at Hancock Saturday evening, be extradited. Governor Packer will grant a hearing tomorrow.

300 ON A STRIKE.

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 18—A special to the Sentinel from Jellico says 300 men are out on a strike at the Birdseye coal mines, controlled by the Louisville & Nashville, through the Louisville Property company. The cause, it is said, is that the company presented the men a contract which they refused to sign. An early adjustment is expected.

MARDI GRAS CROWDS.

New Orleans, Feb. 18—Carnival week opened with the city crowded with visitors. The opening social event of the week was last night when the Atlantians gave their annual ball at the French opera house. Miss Alice Roosevelt and Miss Root, daughter of the secretary of war, accepted invitations to attend.

EASTERN STAR MEETING POSTPONED—Easter chapter No. 21 of the Eastern Star will not meet tonight on account of the weather.

CHARITY KUCHER—To be given at the K. P. hall Friday night, February 20, 1903; tickets 25c. Handsome prizes will be awarded.

CALLED IN—There will be no prayer meeting at the First Presbyterian church this evening, owing to the inclemency of the weather.

CONFERENCE TONIGHT—Quarterly conference will be held tonight at the Broadway Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone is expected.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON—The funeral of Mrs. William Bongono was held this afternoon from the residence on South Third street, services by Rev. G. W. Perryman, interment at Oak Grove.

SMALL WRECK AT HENNING—A slight freight wreck occurred near Henning, Tenn., on the Illinois Central. A car broke down, causing nine coal cars to be derailed, delaying traffic for several hours.

CABLE IN GOOD CONDITION—An inspection of the Western Union's cable under the Ohio river between Paducah and Brookport by Mr. V. C. Klesenger of Chicago showed it to be in good condition and Mr. Klesenger has returned home.

COMMITTEE NOT COMPLETE—Mr. H. C. Rhodes, of the Red Men, expects to have the executive committee for the fall festival ready for the regular meeting of the lodge Friday night. There will be eleven members and they will appoint the sub-committees.

BROADWAY REPAIRS—It is stated that the reason no repairs have been made on the brick street and sidewalks from First to Fifth on Broadway is that City Engineer Washington deems it advisable to wait until spring, when the weather settles. The council ordered the work done some time ago.

FORMER PADUCAHAN MENTIONED—The current issue of Frank Leslie's Weekly contains a picture of Miss Rosa Falls, formerly of Paducah, but now of New Orleans. Miss Falls is successfully practicing law in the Crescent City, and it is claimed has never lost a case. She is pleasantly remembered by a host of friends here.

BACK HOME AGAIN—Owen Batts and Willie Zeas, the two office boys who ran away from home Saturday night, have returned to the city well contented to remain here. They got as far as Metropolis, eight miles below the city, and found the weather so severe that they decided to brave the world no longer and accordingly returned home.

ALMOST FROZEN—Prof. John D. Smith of Smith's Business College saved a young man's life night before last. The young man in question was drunk, and was almost frozen when he staggered to Prof. Smith's door at Third and Madison and aroused the family. He was taken in and worked with until he could be carried home by relatives. Had he not wandered into the house he doubtless would have been found frozen stiff yesterday morning.

TAKE THE NEW TELEPHONE—The People's Independent Telephone company has been selected by the Merchants' association, the Retail Grocers' association and the Physicians', Dentists' and Bar associations to furnish exclusive telephone service. The company uses all long distance instruments, full metallic circuit, no party lines, and the latest improved switchboard; all of which will insure the highest speed, complete privacy and up-to-date service. Do not delay, but send in your subscriptions at once, as instruments are now being rapidly installed. All types of instruments on exhibition at the company's office, No. 118 South Fifth street. 5t

FROZEN TO DEATH

He Had Removed His Clothes and Wandered About in the Cold.

Wash Hall, an old darkey who had been considered half crazy for some time past, was found dead this morning early by his family in a small house near Tenth and Broadway, just west of the tobacco warehouse.

It seems the old man had a mania for taking off his clothing, no matter what kind of weather happened to prevail. About 1 o'clock this morning his son missed him, according to the story told Coroner Peal, and went out to look for him but could not find him.

Early this morning the body, stark naked, was found inside the back room near the door, by his wife. She and her son placed it near the stove, but the spark of life was extinct, and Coroner Peal was finally notified. He had the body removed to Nance's and will hold an inquest tomorrow morning, after a thorough investigation.

The old man was quite well known, and hobbled about a great deal. He was considered an imbecile, but had not been ill, and probably wandered about in the cold last night until he could barely reach the house, where he died from the exposure. He was 65 or 70 years old and leaves a wife and son.

Coroner Peal has been told that probably the old man was not treated and looked after as he might have been, and is investigating the case.

STRUCK ICE WAGON

ONE MULE WILL HAVE TO BE KILLED.

An ice wagon belonging to Mr. George Robertson was struck by an I. C. switch engine at 8:15 this morning at the Eleventh street crossing between Jefferson street and Broadway and one mule will be killed as a result and the other probably crippled.

Mr. J. W. Aday was driving the wagon and was unable to bear the engine coming on account of the wind. The engine was backing slowly and knocked the mules down and turned the wagon over. The driver jumped and escaped injury.

BURIAL IN ILLINOIS

DEATH OF A PREACHER IN HALLARD COUNTY.

Rev. Mike Rose, aged 75 years, died of congestion of the liver this morning at 5 o'clock at his home in Barlow City, Hallard county.

He leaves a wife and six children and the remains will be buried at Ozark, Ill., his former home. He had been a resident of Barlow City for over two years, coming from Ozark.

COUNTY COURT.

J. U. Morgan of Marshall county, aged 51, and Lizzie J. Barnes of Marshall county, aged 19, were this morning licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both.

The will of the late E. P. Overstreet, of the county, has been admitted to probate, the deceased leaving everything to his wife.

H. B. Mohley of the county, aged 27, and Roxie Scott of the county, aged 38, have been licensed to wed.

John James of the county, aged 25, and Birdie Scott were licensed to wed this morning.

Power of attorney has been given Brack Owen, trustee, by George Rock and others.

Social Notes and About People.

ODD FELLOWS' SOCIAL.

The promise is for a delightful time at the social to be given Friday night by Loggelside lodge, Odd Fellows, at their hall at Fifth and Broadway. The members of Magnun lodge have been invited.

MARRIED TODAY.

The marriage of Mr. Joseph Arts and Miss Jennie Sattie took place this forenoon at the St. Francis De Sales parsonage, Rev. Father Jansen officiating. Both are popular young people of the West End and have many friends to wish them a long life of happiness.

CHARITY CLUB MEETING.

The Charity club met this morning at the Palmer house. It was decided to postpone the colonial tea announced for Thursday afternoon until Tuesday afternoon of next week. Some routine business was transacted. The club is being kept very busy this weather and is doing a fine work.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENTERTAIN.

Masters Spencer and Oscar Starks, sons of Alderman Starks, entertained many of their little friends last evening at their home on Washington street near Fifth. Flunch was played during the evening, followed by an elegant luncheon. All those present will long remember the occasion as one of the most enjoyable they ever had.

A GOOD CAUSE.

The Charity club will have a "Saturday Market" on Saturday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock at DuBois & Kolb's drugstore. A number of the best oakmakers in the city have promised cakes, and there will be other delightful articles such as candy, salted almonds, etc., for sale. This has been arranged to meet the great need which the severe weather has caused. The chairman of the committee are buying many and imperative calls constantly, and money is badly needed. The public should patronize this sale.

PARTY RETURNED.

The party who went from here yesterday to attend the Cohen-Kaufman wedding at Cairo, returned last night on the Fowler. In the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Weille, Mrs. Herman Wallerstein, Mrs. Jacob Wallerstein, Mrs. Sol Dreyfus, Mrs. Joannette Weille, Mrs. I. Bodenheimer, Mrs. Belle Wolf, Mrs. L. S. Levy, Miss Mamie Dreyfus, Mr. James Weille, and Rabbi David Alexander. The wedding and reception was a very pretty affair.

PLEASANT EVENING.

The orchestra given last night at Elks' hall by the Ladies' Auxiliary was a delightful affair, and there was a good

A CORKER

BUT NOT MUCH OF A PASTOR.

There was an old clergyman in Central New York state some years ago who was a very powerful speaker but whose private life was by no means exemplary. Some of the more outspoken of his parishioners were in the habit of remonstrating with him regularly about this and his reply invariably was "Don't do as I do, do as I tell you to do."

It is so with a great many physicians. There are hundreds of medical men who fully understand the folly of drinking coffee and tea, who tell their patients not to drink either, yet who use one or the other themselves. But sometimes it takes even the doctor out and he has to quit old King Coffee. A physician of Wasloja, Minn., says: "I was a liberal user of coffee from my youth and my health broke down while at college in 1880, at 25 years of age, but I continued to use coffee until 1898 although I was nervous and suffered constantly from a condition known as diabetes insipidus, a condition that is well known to be due to nervousness. My weight was below par and no diet or tonic medicines were sufficient to restore my vitality and strength."

"In 1898 I became suspicious of coffee and I broke off the habit by taking up Postum. Since that time my nerves have become strong and well and my weight has increased about 50 pounds. Well boiled it is delicious, healthful drink, heavy with strength and muscle making qualities." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek Mich.

Even if your physician does not drink coffee, you had better do so. He tells you to do. Give Postum a trial. That's the easy way to shake off coffee and get well and keep well.

HACK AND CAR

Collision at Fifth and Broadway
This Afternoon.

Lady Passenger Slightly Bristled by Jumping From the Hack.

A Palmer Transfer Co. hack, No. 21, in charge of Driver Harry Simmons, collided with a Paducah City Railway car, No. 52, in charge of Motorman Oakley Doolin, today at 1:30 at the corner of Fifth and Broadway, and Mrs. Thomas Hill, who was riding in the hack, had a narrow escape from serious injury.

The hack was coming from the N. O. and St. L. depot and at this corner met the street car. The street was slick and Simmons was unable to make a stop, his horses sliding straight for the car. He turned them aside and the hack and car locked. Two window tights and the night lantern were broken, but otherwise the hack escaped damage. Mrs. Hill opened the cab door and jumped out after the hack and car had stopped, and in alighting sustained slight bruises. She re-entered the hack and was driven home.

The accident caused much excitement and quite a crowd collected about the corner after the vehicle was separated from the street car. The motorman claims he had his car under control and that he had rung his bell before the corner was reached. The hack driver claims he heard no warning bell from the car.

IS RECOVERED.

STOLEN MAIL POUCH MYSTERIOUSLY REAPPEARS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 18.—The mail pouch containing mail from Louisville to the northwest said by local postoffice authorities to have been stolen has been mysteriously recovered. The pouch was found among a number of other pouches that were taken from Big Four train No. 11 which arrived from Cincinnati at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The authorities can give no explanation. The pouch seems to contain all the missing mail intact. The postoffice had given up all hope of finding the pouch, and most of the banks had issued duplicate drafts. The pouch, which was stolen January 31, contained from $50,000 to $75,000 in various kinds of remittances. Some of the bundles of letters had been either untied or jostled apart but so far as is known no letters had been disturbed. Bundles of mail from Louisville, New Albany, Seymour, Columbus, Edinburg, Franklin, Salem, and Bloomfield banks were found undisturbed.

MRS BRUNE TOMORROW

COMPANY DELAYED AND WILL NOT GIVE PERFORM.
ANCE TONIGHT.

Mrs. Brune and her company, direct from New York, will arrive tonight at 7:05 but on account of the tiresome trip and the long and unexpected delays along the route, the performance will not be given at The Kentucky tonight as announced, but tomorrow night in tend. On this occasion the tickets already purchased will be good, and it is expected that the entire house will be sold out by tomorrow evening.

The train on which the company comes was delayed many hours at Cliftonford, Va., and in postponing the performance Manager English does so with a view to giving his patrons only a first class performance which could only be after the company has had a good rest.

LOOK OUT FOR CATARRH

When the cold wave flag is up, freezing weather is on the way. Winter is here in earnest, and with it all the miserable symptoms of Catarrh return—blinding headaches and neuralgia, thick mucous discharges from the nose and throat, a hacking cough and pain in the chest, bad taste in the mouth, fetid breath, nausea and all that makes Catarrh the most sickening and disgusting of all complaints. It causes a feeling of personal defilement and mortification that keeps one nervous and anxious while in the company of others.

In spite of all efforts to prevent it, the filthy secretions and mucous matter find their way into the Stomach and are distributed by the blood to every nook and corner of the system; the Stomach and Kidneys, in fact every organ and part of the body, become infected with the catarrhal poison. This disease is rarely, if ever, even in its earliest stages, a purely local disease or simple inflammation of the nose and throat, and this is why sprays, washes, powders and the various inhaling mixtures fail to cure. Heredity is sometimes back of it—parents have it and so do their children.

In the treatment of Catarrh, anti-septic and soothing washes are good for cleansing purposes or clearing the head and throat, but this is the extent of their usefulness. To cure Catarrh permanently, the blood must be purified and the system relieved of its load of foul secretions, and the remedy to accomplish this is S. S. S. which has no equal as a blood purifier. It restores the blood to a natural, healthy state and the catarrhal poison and effete matter are carried out of the system through the proper channels. S. S. S. restores to the blood all its good qualities, and when rich, pure blood reaches the inflamed membrane and is carried through the circulation to all the Catarrh infected portions of the body, they soon heal, the mucous discharges cease and the patient is relieved of the most offensive and humiliating of all complaints.

S. S. S. is a vegetable remedy and contains nothing that could injure the most delicate constitution. It cures Catarrh in its most aggravated forms, and cases apparently incurable and hopeless. Write us if you have Catarrh, and our physicians will advise you without charge.

ENTIRE WEDDING PARTY ON HONEYMOON

(Chicago Telegram to the Baltimore American)

Miss Marion Ream, daughter of Norman B. Ream, who will be married Wednesday to Raymond Stephens, has invited all the bridesmaids, ushers and the best man to accompany her on the wedding trip. A private car will convey the party south, and then comes a voyage to Nassau. The bridesmaids are Miss Bissell, of Dubuque; Miss Dorothy Frohner, of Johnstown, Pa.; Miss Kilpatrick, of Baltimore, and Miss Eleanor Keley, Miss Marjorie Streeter and Miss Florence Grey, of Chicago.

Miss Frances Ream, the bride's sister, the maid of honor, will go, too. Nine men are invited to be of the party.

NO DRINKS OR CIGARS

AT ELECTIONS
(Salt Lake Telegram to the New York Sun.)

Mrs. Mary Conlter, the lone woman legislator, has introduced a bill to place a maximum on the campaign expenses of would-be United States senators and congressmen. The measure makes Utah elections of the future bargain-counter affairs.

The bill provides that no candidate shall buy for voters beer, whiskey or any kind of intoxicating drinks, cigars or tobacco in any form, lend them money or promise them political jobs. Every candidate must file sworn statements showing in detail all he spent.

The expressed intention of the measure is to mark down Utah senatorial jobs. Mrs. Conlter is president of the Utah Federation of Women's clubs.

INDIAN WAR GOD FOUND.

(Tunkhannock, Pa., Telegram to the Philadelphia Press.)

A valuable Indian relic was found recently and added to the collection of William I. Avery of this place. It is a carved stone war god of the Indians who lived along the banks of Mehoopany creek.

The recent floods washed away a large portion of the creek's banks, and the war god was exposed. It is of soft gray stone and is carved to represent a human face, with openings to represent the eyes, nose, mouth and ears.

GLASS TRUST TO REVEAL SECRET.

(Alexandria, Ind., Telegram to the Indianapolis News.)

Indiana representatives of co-operative window glass plants, who attended a meeting of the Federation Glass Co. at Columbus, O., have been invited by the American Window Glass Co. to meet on February 1 to inspect the blowing machines in the trust plant here. It will be the first public inspection of the machines that the window glass trust has permitted, and it will reveal what the trust has accomplished with the machines.

Norway's Fisheries.

The fisheries represent one of Norway's chief industries, and quantities of fish are sold at very low rates, particularly during summer. One way in which these are utilized is by means of an invention which quickly dries and pulverizes the flesh of fresh fish. The resulting product, called fish flour, is easy to transport from one place to another and has great nutritive value.

Low Colonist Rates to the Northwest and California.

From February 15th until April 30th, the Burlington makes greatly reduced one-way rates for settlers going to California, Montana, Big Horn Basin, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Puget Sound Country and British Columbia. Generally speaking the reduction is from 25 to 40 percent.

The Way to Go

Take the Burlington trains at St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Omaha, Denver or Chicago. With its close connections, the Great Northern and Northern Pacific roads, and with its through train service the Burlington offers more to the settler than any other line or combination of lines into the Northwest.

The "Burlington Northern Pacific Express" is the great daily train with through chair cars, coaches and through tourist sleepers. This is the only through train into the Northwest jointly with the Northern Pacific Road.

To California

Join the Burlington's personally conducted California excursions in through tourist sleepers which are run on frequent dates each week via Denver, Scenic Colorado and Salt Lake City.

Main Traveled Road

One makes no mistake in calling for tickets over the Burlington with its 5000 miles of main traveled trunk lines leading practically to all the great cities and diverging points of the West.

ROUGH RIVER TODAY

Wind and Waves Keep the Boats at the Bank.

Few If Any of the Boats Have Been Able to Move Today.

NO RIVER REPORTS RECEIVED

Business in river circles came to a standstill this morning on account of the rough winds.

Early this morning the velocity of the wind increased converting the river into a seething mass of dangerous water into which no boat would venture. The Dix Fowler did not make her usual trip to Cairo and the Bettie Owen, one of the safest boats in winds, did not venture out. All the regular packets ceased operation and all towboats are laying up waiting for more favorable time to go out.

Some little anxiety is felt relative to the stages of the waters above and as no report was received this morning a number of the river men have been doing some guessing. If the river is on a rise above it is more than probable that the stage here will reach a dangerous point and already the warehouses and factories having goods stored near the river are removing same to places of safety.

The Harry Brown was due down yesterday but has not yet been seen. It is not known whether she passed down last night or not but she will have to wait until daylight before passing under the Cairo bridge.

The Cowling did not make a trip today on account of the winds.

The Bettie Owen is taking a day off today and has made no trips.

The John S. Hopkins and Joe Fowler are both due here today but will be delayed by the winds.

The Margaret, Luverness and Duffey are all wind bound and cannot get away. All would have gone out today for this.

The Russell Lord is due in about Friday.

The Pavonia is loading tea near the mouth of Cumberland river.

The H. S. Frisbie passed down yesterday afternoon late with a tow for the south. She did not stop here but went on down at full speed.

The Bonanza has stepped running in the Cincinnati and Memphis trade and has returned to her old trade above Cincinnati. She has been replaced by the steamer City of Louisville which will leave Cincinnati today and pass Paducah tomorrow night.

The Sunshine is due today from Cincinnati to Memphis but will probably have to go to the bank on account of the winds.

The Clyde is still at Joppa and unable to come upon account of the wind. She is due to leave Paducah for Tennessee river tonight at 6 o'clock.

The Butterfield is due to leave at noon for Cumberland river but will probably not get away until the wind has abated.

The Dick Fowler was unable to get away this morning on account of the winds and had not left for Cairo at press time.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 40.8, a fall of 0.2 in the last 24 hours. Wind, southwest. Weather, cloudy and warmer. Temperature, 4 degrees above zero. Fell, Observer.

The Avalon got away for Cumberland river yesterday afternoon late.

The Victor is wind bound up the Tennessee river and unable to get here today with her tow of ties.

Evansville dispatches state that three tows with 100 coalboats and 4,000,000 bushels of coal, are tied up there because of high water and wind.

Captain Alexander Lamont will be in charge of the steamer India Stevens, which will engage in the business of transporting grain in bulk with two barges from St. Louis to Nashville, Tenn.

Captain John E. Massengale, general manager of the St. Louis and Tennessee river line, returned yesterday from Johnsonville, Tenn., where he saw the steamer Shiloh of the line for the first time Saturday, says the Globe-Democrat. He reports heavy rains in the south.

Henry Oullen, a clerk in the Lee line for the past seven years, will take a position on the steamer City of Memphis.

Coll Baker, a clerk in the St. Louis and Tennessee river line, has returned from California.

The original name of the Henry De Bus was Menola r. She has been rebuilt three times.

DIED IN LOUISVILLE

YOUNG MAN VERY POPULAR IN PADUCAH SUCCEUMS THERE.

Mr. Edmund P. Holly, an attaché of the R. G. Dunn's office at Louisville, died yesterday in Louisville from typhoid fever, after a long illness.

Mr. Holly was well and favorably known in Paducah as manager of the local office of R. G. Dunn & Co., succeeding Mr. A. N. Clark after the latter's death. He was here for about a year, and was then transferred to the Louisville office and was succeeded by the present manager Mr. Little.

Mr. Holly was a refined, courteous young man, about 30 years old, and one who thoroughly understood his business, and who had the esteem and confidence of all who knew him here. His death will be greatly regretted.

GOOD PLACE

Flexibility of a "Dorothy Dodd"

EASY SOLES

IT IS SAID that the woman who goes to church with squeaky shoes goes to the right place, for her SOLE needs attention.

There is really a good deal about the sole of a woman's shoe that needs attention. You realize it if you stop to think how much you relieve the discomfort and "hardness" of shoes by making their soles flexible.

So far as I know (and I have taken pains to examine many different makes of shoes) the "Dorothy Dodd" is the one shoe for women that is really constructed with a flexible sole.

You can tell the difference as soon as a few steps have been taken. It means comfort. And a flexible sole, as rule, will out last any rigid sole—don't ever look that!
